THE HENSHAW CHALLENGE CONQUERED

A talk accompanied by films and photographs by
South African Airways Captain Chalkie Stobbart

Of his preparation and actual flight from Cape Town to England and return in May 2009, to beat the 70 year record held by Englishman Alex Henshaw

Cometh the hour – cometh the man

To be held at the Linder Auditorium, Parktown, Johannesburg
on

Wednesday 15 July and Thursday 16 July Doors close 19h30

Tickets available from Computicket at R60 per person from 2 July

Do not miss this amazing story of fortitude and determination. A true South African hero following in the footsteps of Lt.Col.Pierre van Ryneveld and Lt.Quinton Brand, who were the first pilots to fly from London to Cape Town in 1920
